MAIL-BID SALE TWENTY-TWO OF NUMISMATIC LITERATURE

CLOSING, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY, 18, 1995

5:00 PM, (Eastern Time)

FEATURING

SELECTIONS EXCLUSIVELY FROM THE SHELVES OF THE MONEY TREE.

Welcome to The MONEY TREE's first annual inventory clearance mail bid sale. Everything in this sale is among the material that we have accumulated in the last few years. To further tempt you, we will not be charging a buyer's premium for the material in this sale. Repeat: THERE WILL BE NO 10% OR ANY PERCENT BUYER'S PREMIUM FOR THIS SALE

We have organized this sale into the following sections: General, ANS Monographs, Ancient Coinage, Non-Western Hemisphere Coinage, Western Hemisphere Coinage, and Miscellany.

Not only does this sale offer rare, important, and unusual items, but it should also give you the opportunity to obtain some of those elusive pieces which are missing in your library. In fact, we have not previously offered most of the material offered in this sale.

You will also notice that for this sale we have kept our annotations to a minimum. All the better to put more stuff into these few pages. We have also made every attempt to make very conservative price estimates. If you like the idea of this clearance sale, we will consider having another one "Same Time Next Year."

So, we hope you have fun with this sale. Good hunting. Good collecting. Happy New Year.

Incidentally, The Money Tree's Mail Bid Sale 23 which will be held in the late spring will be a return to our usual sale format. Among the highlights of this sale will be selections from the Library of GEORGE HATIE, featuring ANA auction catalogues from the 1920's and 1930's, the GEORGE HATIE collection of ANA medals, featuring many in gold, and other ANA material from the HATIE collection. Also we are proud to announce that in Mail Bid Sale 23 we will be offering selections from the Library of WALTER BREEN. Several other distinguished consignments will fill out this sale.

TERMS OF SALE

- This is a mail bid auction sale. All lots will be sold to the highest bidder. Bids will be treated as 1. limits and lots will (really!) be purchased below the maximums where competition permits. Bids must be made in whole dollar amounts. Telephone bids are accepted. Lots will be sold on the day indicated.
- Seven (7) % state sales tax will be added to the cost of all lots delivered in Ohio.
- Mail bid auction sales are not approval sales. No lot may be returned without written permission, and such permission must be requested within three (3) days after receipt of lots. By submitting your bids you agree to the Terms of Sale herewith set forth.

Bidders unknown to us must supply acceptable credit references or a 25% deposit to assure entry of their bids. Deposits from unsuccessful bidders are returned promptly. All postage, insurance, and shipping charges will be added to invoices. A $1.00 packing, materials, and processing charge will be assessed for each lot. There will be a minimum $2.50 charge for packing, material, and processing. No bidder will be charged more than $10.00 for packing and

- processing except for large lots where the charge will be increased, not to exceed our costs.

 Terms of sale are strictly cash in United States funds. FOREIGN PAYMENTS MUST BE MADE IN U.S. DOLLARS AND ALL CHECKS MUST BE DRAWN ON UNITED STATES BANKS. Payment must be made immediately upon receipt of invoice or, at our option, upon receipt of material. Because we pay our consignors in no more than 45 days after the close of the sale, a late payment fee of 1.5% per month will be charged on all accounts remaining unpaid thirty (30) days after the closing date
- Lots to be mailed to addresses not in the United States or its Territories, will be sent only at the risk of the purchaser. When possible, insurance will be obtained; it must be noted, however, that adequate insurance is often not available by surface mail.

All books are as described. We acknowledge the possibility of errors and typographical mistakes, and any errors on our part will be cheerfully and promptly corrected. We cannot, however, be responsible for your errors; please check your bid sheet carefully. Title to all lots remains with The Money Tree until paid for in full. We reserve the discretionary right to withhold the delivery of lots until full payment has been received. We reserve the right to reject any bid from any bidder which we deem is not made in good faith. We reserve the right to reject any bid which, in our opinion, is unacceptable.

10. A Prices Realized List will be mailed to bidders and to those who purchased their catalogues.

II. NO BUYER'S FEE WILL BE CHARGED IN THIS SALE.

NARAMORE'S UNITED STATES TREASURY AND NATIONAL BANK NOTE DETECTOR

Naramore, Robert C. NARAMORE'S UNITED STATES TREASURY AND NATIONAL BANK NOTE DETECTOR BY PHOTOGRAPHIC COPIES OF THE CIRCULATING NOTES ISSUED BY ACT OF CONGRESS TAKEN FROM PROOF IMPRESSIONS ON FILE IN THE UNITED STATES TREASURY DEPARTMENT, PUBLISHED BY PERMISSION OF HON. H. MC CULLOCH, SECRETARY, U.S. TREASURY, 1866. But for the manner in which the notes are affixed to the mount boards, the notes are each VF to As New. (600.00)

Davis 738. The 18 Legal Tender and National Currency notes were originally photographed on one 22 by 25cm. sheet. The sheet was cut into the 18 individual notes. Each individual note is 8.4x3.6cm.

The four corners of each of the 18 notes have been taped to the backs of 4 different boards with cut outs for the front of the notes to show through. A generally 5x5x6mm, piece of clear tape covers only a triangular corner of each of the 4 corners of the backs of each note. Translation: a little piece of tape affixes the corners of the blank backs of the notes to the cardboard mount.

Maramores come in several other formats: the rare uncut sheet; notes cut into its 18 components and mounted on card stock; and the card mounted notes housed in a small leather case.

This is one of the earliest examples of the use of photography in American numismatic (predating both the Levick plate and Cogan's plated Mackenzie sale by 3 years). These are also the earliest examples of photographs of American currency

NOTE: These 4 mounted cards were each framed in wood behind glass, and hung for years on a wall in the Money Tree office. We assumed that they were just cheap wall-hangings. However, upon hearing from a friend of ours who had run across several of the individual Maramore notes mounted on an advertising card, we decided to take a closer look at what we had. Surprise!

C-S 15090° (for Stauffer). Volumes One and Two consist of Stauffer's classic 1907 work. The first 299 pages of Volume I comprise biographical sketches of the engravers. Pages 317 to 391 consist of an Index to Engravings Described with Check-List numbers and names of engravers and artists. Volume Two consists of a Check-List of 3448 works of the earlier engravers from 1825 onward.

Volume Three is devoted to Mantle Fielding's supplement: biographical sketches and check lists of engravings consisting of 40 pages of biographies and a check-list of 1932 engravings. Gage's work is, "An Artist Index to Stauffer's American Engravers".

This is of great value to those seeking a reference in which prominent American numismatic engravers are listed and also for information about the engravers of intaglio engravings found in 19th century books.

286. Xenos, Myron (assisted by K. Michael Lowe). THE INVASION OF LOUISVILLE. 1988. 4to, yellow CaC. 20 pages. 66 ills. As New. (20.00)

Only 50 Copies were produced. During the Cincinnati A.N.A. convention in August 1988, Armand and Kay Champa treated about 45 of the most prominent numismatists and numismatic bibliophiles in America (and us) to a full day at the Champa library. Myron took along his trusty Minolta, and snapped his little cheeks off realizing that this was truly a special occasion in American numismatic history (really).

Under one roof at the same time were John Ford, Frank and Laurese Katen, Eric Newman, John and Mary Bergman, Remy and Avis Bourne, Mr. and Mrs. Jules Reiver, Barry Tayman, George Fuld, Mark Auerbach, Ken Barr, Jess Patrick, Wayne Homren, Jeff Rock, Del Bland, Charles Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Vince Alones, Nancy Green, John Burns, Gordon Frost, Jim Adams, John Ruffman, Cal Wilson, P. Scott Rubin, Martin Gengerke, Bob Wester, Michael J. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Grace, Judge Roger Persichilli, Jim Adams, Jack Collins, Jeff Peck, Bob Zavos, Dick and Lorraine Punchard, Col. Bill Murray, Carling Gresham, Sande Elinson of the ANS. Apparently John Adams and Denis Loring visited the day before. (the names are listed in order of their appearance in my records.)

Myron assembled the copied photos into a booklet and made them available to our friends for a pittance. By the way, these copied photos are of modest quality. So to make this item truly memorable, Myron, with some help from me, put captions under each photo. These turned out to be rather amusing, somewhat irreverent, a bit witty, and some which are actually funny.

THE CLASSIC "PENNY BOARD"

328. Whitman Publishing Company. LINCOLN HEAD PENNY COLLECTION. From 1909. No. 355. 1938. 10 7/8 by 13 7/8". Original blue felt-covered board, lettered in silver. The silver printing is slightly muted. The tan backing paper is perfect. With the original "kraft" envelope (slightly worn). The very tips of the four corners of the "obverse" show slight rub. VF. (35.00)

This is an excellent example of the classic "Penny Board" that may have been more responsible than anything else in getting the typical American involved in numismatics.

There are 90 total openings with 9 across and 10 rows downward. The last listed openings are for the 1938 cents; six other unlisted openings follow.

Unused examples of these boards are rare, and a truly significant part of our American numismatic heritage.

- 329. Whitman Publishing Company. INDIAN HEAD PENNY COLLECTION. No. 354. 1935. 10 7/8 by 13 7/8". Black board, lettered in gilt. The tan backing paper is perfect. VF or better. (25.00) This is a superb example of what is probably the earliest version of this Whitman board.
- 330. Whitman Publishing Company. INDIAN HEAD PENNY COLLECTION. 1856 TO 1909, INCLUSIVE, No. 354. 1938. 10 7/8 by 13 7/8". Blue board, lettered in silver. A few thin horizontal creases in the tan backing paper. With the original "kraft" envelope. VF. (25.00)

 Printed on the tan backing paper, "This board is made to fit a 11 x 14 picture frame."

- 331. Whitman Publishing Company. LIBERTY HEAD NICKEL. Collection 1883 to 1913. No. 356. 1938. 10 7/8 by 13 7/8". Blue felt covered board, lettered in silver. The lettering is muted. The felt is slightly dusty. The backing paper is perfect. With the original "kraft" envelope. Nearly VF. (20.00) The slot for the 1913 is uncut with "RARE" typeset on the covered slot.
- 332. Whitman Publishing Company. BUFFALO NICKEL. COLLECTION FROM 1913. No. 357. 1938. 10 7/8 by 13 7/8". Blue board, lettered in silver. A few thin horizontal creases in the tan backing paper. With the original "kraft" envelope. "Jefferson nickels" in pencil on the envelope. The silver printing is slightly muted. Else VF. (25.00)

The small paper label on the bottom back corner indicates that this board was priced at 25 cents.

333. Whitman Publishing Company. MERCURY HEAD DIME COLLECTION. Starting 1916. No. 359. 1938. 10 7/8 by 13 7/8". Blue board, lettered in silver. Openings for 2 undated slots in the bottom row have been "punched in" from the back. Else VF. (15.00)

The last printed opening is for a 1940-D.

- 334. Whitman Publishing Company. MERCURY HEAD DIME COLLECTION. Starting 1916. No. 399. 1938. 10 7/8 by 13 7/8". Black board, lettered in silver. The opening for the 1939-D dime has been partially "punched in" from the back. "1942" and "1942-D" have been added in pencil. Nearly VF. (15.00) The back paper is red. A printed block on the back lists the boards' numbers in the 390's, rather than the 350's.
- 335. Whitman Publishing Company. MORGAN QUARTER-LIBERTY HEAD. Collection 1892 to 1905 Inc. No. 362. 1938.10 7/8 by 13 7/8". Blue felt covered board, lettered in silver. A few thin horizontal creases in the tan backing paper. The opening for the 1901-S quarter has been partially "punched in" from the back. With the original now worn "kraft" envelope. VF. (20.00)

But for the attempted punch, this is a choice example.

336. Whitman Publishing Company. MORGAN HALF DOLLAR-LIBERTY HEAD. Collection 1892 to 1902. No. 365. 1938. 10 7/8 by 13 7/8". Blue felt covered board, lettered in silver. The lettering is muted. The felt is peripherally faded. Rub at the very tips of the top "obverse" corners. A few thin horizontal creases in the tan backing paper. The backing paper on the upper left quadrant is creased as made. Fine. (20.00)

Because of the denomination, fewer of these boards were produced. The slot for the 1892-0 is uncut with "RARE" typeset on the covered slot.

REDEEMING TRADE DOLLARS.

The United States Sub-Treashry in Wall Street has been busy during the last two months with the redemption of those white-faced trade dollars which were so ignominiously dismissed from circulation several years ago. There were some seven million trade dollars in all, and by an act of the last Congress the New York Sub-Treasury was called upon to redeem the entire lot at one hundred cents apiece. The movement to redeem the trade dollars started in President Armun's time. When the dollars were forced out of circulation by an interesting exercise of co-operative power on the part of the public, they passed into the hands of speculators, who bought them for eighty-five cents each, or less, and held them with a fine faith iu what the future could be made to bring forth. At one time, under President Armur, their speculative value ran up to ninety-five cents, and at another time, under President CLEVELAND, it ran down to seventy-seven cents. Their final redemption at one hundred cents leaves a fairly good profit to the holders.

Three or four millions of the outcasts have returned and have been redeemed so far. Nobody

Three or four millions of the outeasts have returned and have been redeemed so far. Nobody knows, of course, when the last one will have been gathered into the Sub-Treasury. Not a few are in China, where square holes have been cut in them to make them resemble Chinese money. These the Sub-Treasury will not redeem, so it would be useless for any one to send them over here. In fact, no trade dollar is redeemed which is mutilated, and it is because mutilated specimens must be looked out for that the redemption of the outeasts is attended with so much labor. Each one of the three or four millions which have come in has been handled separately. The Sub-Treasury melts the trade dollars up for the silver which is in them—there is considerably less than a dollar's worth in each—and the government pockets the loss.

Doubtless a good many persons wonder how many dollars there are in the Sub-Treasury. There are about one hundred and forty million. Leading to the vaults in which this treasure is stored are two steel doors which have such an appearance of strength that one would think that thousand-ton trip-hammers could not prevail against them. One of these doors is behind the other, and to reach the vaults it is necessary to pass through both. It is a rule which has never been violated that the two doors shall never be opened at the same time. Even the Secretary of the Treasury, when he goes into the vaults, must wait for one of the steel barricades to swing to and be bolted and locked behind him before the other is opened for his advance. The roof of the Sub-Treasury also has apparatus for the protection of the gold and silver which are below. It is armed with Gatling-guns and repeating rifles.
